

ONLY THREE CANDIDATES

Lists Close in Petersburg for House of Delegates.

NO LABOR CANDIDATE UP

The New Jersey Colored Preacher Who Sold Petersburg Negroes Marsh Lands as Valuable Investment Has Been Indicted.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Sept. 18.—Three candidates for nomination to the State Legislature will be voted for at the primary election next Thursday. The time for entering the primary expired at 3 o'clock yesterday, and at that time the secretary of the Democratic City Committee had received only the names of Messrs. Bartlett Roper, Jr., John Watson and Charles E. Plummer, all of whom are well known young lawyers in this city. It was expected that the last moment a labor candidate would enter the race. The fight is being actively conducted by the young men, all of whom are friends. They can often be seen together talking about their candidacy. Each seems confident of success, and already several bets have been made on the result. The young men especially are taking much interest in the fight. TO INDICT THE JERSEY PREACHER. James Fishburn, the New Jersey negro preacher, who sold negroes in Petersburg recently by selling them marsh lands in New Jersey, representing them to be valuable lands that would yield large profits on small investments, has been indicted by the grand jury in this city and an effort will be made to have him brought from New Jersey to this city for trial.

At last night's meeting of the Petersburg, Grays there were present forty-two young men who formally enlisted as members of the company. The physical condition of each was examined by Dr. William B. Henson and forty passed.

The company will be mustered into service later, probably next week.

CORPORATION COURT.
The only business transacted in the Corporation Court today was the admission to probate of the will of the late Mary A. Poland. There was no qualification on the will.

The amount subscribed to the Doc Bacon fund to-day was $20.

Henry Morgan (colored) was fined $10 and costs by the Mayor this morning for beating Timothy Ellis, and John Gunn, another negro, was fined $10 and costs for striking Sarah Robinson on the head with a hatchet. Sarah told the Mayor that she could beat John, but thought she had better have him arrested.

John Manson, alias "Bluestick," was sent on the Corporation Court by the Mayor this morning to answer the charge of breaking into the residence of William Brown, a colored man, living on the Heights, and stealing $2.50 and a razor. The razor was found on "Bluestick's" person when arrested.

The police have for a long time suspected the negro, but have until now failed to get a case against him. It is thought to have been the perpetrator in several robberies committed on the Heights several weeks ago.

"Bluestick" was arrested by Officer Aldridge.

TO THE REFORMATORY.
Beattie Mitchell, the young colored girl, who, on yesterday was committed to the Corporation Court of feloniously cutting, was taken before the Mayor this morning and was sent to jail for thirty days. In the meantime the Mayor will notify the colored reformatory of the case, to which institution the girl will be sent.

By request Rev. George E. Booker will preach a special sermon at High-Street Methodist Church Sunday night on the subject "Faithless Husbands and Disappointed Wives."

William Allen, a mulatto, was before the Mayor this morning and was fined $2 for being drunk. He will be held for five days on suspicion of being wanted in Dinwiddie county for highway robbery. Allen has just returned from the North, having left Dinwiddie more than a year ago. He has a wife living in the county.

By request Rev. George E. Booker will preach a special sermon at High-Street Methodist Church Sunday night on the subject "Faithless Husbands and Disappointed Wives."

AUTUMN WEDDINGS

Variety Shade Scene of a Beautiful Ceremony.

MISS BONDURANT A BRIDE

Youngest Daughter of Colonel and Mrs. A. J. Bondurant Marries Prof. Clifford L. Hare, of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUCKINGHAM, VA., Sept. 18.—Seldom is it the good fortune of the people of Buckingham county to witness a prettier marriage than the one performed at "Variety Shade," the home of Colonel A. J. Bondurant, on the morning of September 16th.

Friends from many States were present in person and by tokens of remembrance. The contracting parties were Professor Clifford L. Hare, of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, and Miss Dabney Bondurant, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander J. Bondurant.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with golden rod, yellow and white being the wedding colors. The soft rays reflected from the many candles emphasized the autumn tints.

The couple plighted their troth under an arch of the old English ivy, which has for more than half a century adorned the lawn of the bride's parents. All nature seemed to smile upon them, and a more perfect day could not have been desired for the consummation of their happiness.

While the friends were assembling Mrs. W. P. Hall played selections from Tannhauser.

THE CEREMONY.
Promptly at 11 o'clock the music changed to the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, and to the inspiring strains of this march the bridal party was led to the altar by two cousins of the bride, Misses Fanny and Nannie Hall, followed by two of the groomsmen, Messrs. Samuel Bondurant and Robert Hall. They were gracefully followed by Miss Marie Harrison, of Talladega, Alabama, and Miss Belle Tyler, of Radford, Va. Next came Mr. William P. Ellis, of Buckingham, Va., and Professor A. L. Bondurant, of the University of Mississippi, followed by Miss Catherine Horsley, of Lynchburg. Then in stately tread came the first bridesmaid, Miss Rebekah Hamilton, of Birmingham.

TABLEAU SCENE.
These were all gracefully grouped around the altar, when Mrs. A. J. Bondurant, mother of the bride, leaning on the arm of Rev. W. M. McPheters, of Columbia, S. C., a kinsman of the bride, proceeded up the aisle. Dr. McPheters taking his stand for the performance of the ceremony. The groom, attended by his brother, Mr. Francis Hare, next came and took their stand in anticipation of the coming of the bride. Together after these came Miss Fanny Bondurant, the maid of honor, with her sister, Mrs. W. Grace Harrison, of Talladega, Ala., not a moment later the bride, wearing the classic gown of honor. These heralded the coming of the bride, who marched slowly to the altar leaning on the arm of her father. In a most impressive manner their vows were spoken. Rev. W. M. McPheters pronouncing them man and wife. Immediately after the wedding ceremony, the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the happy pair received congratulations of their many friends. Then the bride arrayed herself in her going-away gown and soon they were on their way for an extended bridal tour to the North. The best wishes of many attended them to their Southern home at Auburn, Alabama.

Faulconer-Harris.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sept. 18.—A marriage of interest took place a few days ago, the principals being Miss Ada M. Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harris, of that place, and Mr. J. W. Faulconer, of this city.

The ceremony was solemnized in the Baptist Church, which was beautifully decorated. Rev. Mr. Coons, the pastor, officiated.

After a wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Faulconer left for an extended bridal tour, after which they will reside in Pittsburg, Pa.

COL. R. E. WITHERS' 82D BIRTHDAY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WYTHEVILLE, VA., September 18.—Colonel Robert E. Withers, former United States Senator, consul at Hong Kong, colonel of the Eighteenth Virginia, journalist, statesman, and soldier, celebrated his eighty-second birthday here to-day, surrounded by a large circle of his descendants.

A dinner was given to the members of his house, and afterwards his many friends began to call and offer their congratulations, keeping this up in a steady stream all day.

Colonel Withers is in splendid health. His mind is as clear, his eyes as bright as his form as erect as fifty years ago.

CONFEDERATE REUNION
Judge Mann and Others Address the Nottoway Veterans.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NOTTOWAY, C. H., VA., Sept. 18.—The "old vets" of this county had their annual dinner here to-day. A large crowd was present, and eloquent speeches were made by Judge William H. Mann, General Smith Bolling and George Bernard, of Petersburg.

The Blackstone Brass Band was in attendance, and discoursed martial music during the day. Several familiar faces were missed in the throng, they having answered "here" the last roll call since the last reunion.

A HEAVY MAN FALLS ON HIS HEAD

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., September 18.—W. M. Pearson, a prominent farmer of Pittsylvania county, fell several feet from a barn, breaking two ribs and collar-bone Tuesday. Mr. Pearson is a large man and came down head first, and his physician fears his head is seriously injured, as he has been unconscious since the fall.

Fredricksburg Scholars.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sept. 18.—The City Council last night, by a vote of 7 to 4, passed the appropriation of $50 for ten scholarships in Fredericksburg College to be decided by a competitive examination among pupils of the public schools. There was much discussion of the matter as to the locality of the appropriation under the new Constitution. Mr. James T. Layton was elected by

"I feel as young now, at thirty, as I did at eighteen years of age."

That is part of the statement of one woman, mother of six children, who found new life by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is not the ordinary cares of the family, but the natural obligations of motherhood, which make women prematurely old. But it is the womanly diseases, draining away the vitality, and undermining the strength, which take the roundness and suppleness from the form, the bloom from the cheek and the brightness from the eye.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures those womanly diseases which rob women of youth and beauty. It establishes regularity, dries encumbering drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. It brings back to the mother the lightheartedness of her bridal day. This is the testimony of thousands of women who have renewed their youth by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

The City Democratic Committee held its last meeting before the primary at Murphy's Hotel last night, with a large attendance of the members, and selected the judges and clerks for the primary next Tuesday, and received the resignations of two members. It was determined to meet at Old Market Hall next Tuesday evening to receive and announce the returns from the primary.

The ward superintendents reported that they had engaged men to work in the various wards to bring out the unregistered vote and secure their enrollment on the polling lists. This work will be done systematically, and will result in the addition of a number of names to the registration lists.

AS TO FUSION TICKET.
Nothing whatever was said of the prospective opposition of a fusion ticket to the nominees of the primary, and those members of the committee who were asked as to the matter attached no importance to the alleged fusion. On the contrary, there is every assurance that both the organized labor and anti-Mann vote will enter the primary and take a very active part therein. It is the hope of the committee that a large vote will be polled, thereby discouraging opposition from any source.

BOWLED OVER BY A LOOSE HORSE
A Man Falls Into an Unfinished Well in the Night.

Time.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTER, VA., Sept. 18.—The animal show and circus, advertised to exhibit here to-day, passed by on their way to Jarrett's, below Petersburg. This change in schedule is said to be a failure to make suitable rates with the Atlantic Coast Line for the short haul from Manchester.

A revival meeting is now in progress at "Buell's" Church, and will continue there perhaps through the coming week by Rev. J. T. Sewell. There were thirty-two conversions reported from the "Ivey Memorial" meeting, twenty-two of which united with the Methodist Church there.

Mr. G. E. Robertson had a narrow escape a few days ago, while driving in a jumper. As he was making his way home near Carpenter's Crossing, a horse of Mr. Ben Graves, which had kicked out of gear and was in a fright, came dash-gear and wagon in the road behind him, and Mr. Robertson, not being aware of his near approach, was knocked face foremost over the spatterboard of his jumper on the back of his own horse, but by cool management he extricated his horse until management he extricated himself, and saved scarce he could get to his feet.

A colored man, named Johnson, fell into an unfinished well at Centerville, and was baptized in several feet of water in the night, but it so happened that a colored Baptist minister was at the place, and being familiar with such things, he pulled him "out of the water."
